(1/29/10)—Don't miss out on amazing appetizers, excellent entrees and delicious desserts at Horicon Bank's Taste of Fond du Lac this year. Mark your calendars for Sunday, February 28, and stop by Fond du Lac County Fair Grounds Expo Center between 11 a.m. and 6 p.m. to enjoy mouthwatering menu items. Mancino's Pizza & Grinders, Orange Julius and Pockets Bar & Grill are just three of the more than 25 that will be serving up samples for the community.

Mancino's Pizza & Grinders, 818 S. Main St., will be serving up their Grinders, a hot sub made from scratch, this year. On the menu will be a Turkey & Swiss Grinder, Roast Beef & Cheddar Grinder, Seafood & Crab Grinder and Fred Bread.

"We decided to bring back the dishes that worked well last year as well as some popular Mancino's menu items," Tony Lindgren, owner of Mancino's Pizza & Grinders, said.

Pockets Bar & Grill, 119 S. Main St., will also be serving up delicious samplings at the Expo Center this year. Carol Boyd, of Pockets Bar & Grill, decided to bring in her restaurant this year to see how the event has changed from 1987, which was the last time she participated in Taste with Club Fond du Lac. On the menu at event will be its BBQ Pork Slider.

“We looked at our most popular items and chose what people seemed to like,” Boyd said. “We decided it was time to come back and support the event.”

Back for its second year will be Orange Julius, located in the Forest Mall at 835 W. Johnson St. This year they will be serving up an Orange Julius, Strawberry Julius, Strawberry Banana Julius and a Tripleberry Julius.

“We are excited for the event this year, we think it’s a great opportunity to get our name out to the community,” said Lisa Groeschl, manager of Orange Julius. “I love seeing all the different people that come in and being able to sell our product to the guests.”
